Sean suggests.....

LIGHT

Trumer – Pils 4.9% abv

My favorite pils. Extremely crisp without a drying finish or metallic tang you can get from other (even well made) pilsners. Even some fruit notes to my palate.

MEDIUM

Ayinger – Celebrator 6.7% abv

This is the doppelbock that you measure all the rest against. Very smooth. A nice combination of maltiness and sweetness. Super easy to drink.

DARK

Oskar Blues – Gubna 9.5% abv

An Imperial IPA made with 1 hop. That is not standard operating procedure. Summit is the hop, so this will have some nice citrus tones to it. And at around 100 IBU's, it will bring the bitterness.

Every month there will be a new light, medium and dark suggestion
